MISSOULA---

Two former Montana Grizzly football players have been named coaches for the May 7th annual alumni football game at Dornblaser Stadium.

Missoula Sentinel head coach Gene Leonard and Havre head coach Larry Stranahan will lead the alumni team against the Grizzly varsity in the game.

Leonard, a successful high school coach at Sentinel from 1971 to 1973, has assumed the head job once again for the 1977 football season. A 1964 graduate of UM, Leonard played offensive end for the Grizzlies from 1961-63.

Stranahan, in his third year as Havre's head coach, is a 1970 graduate of UM. He played guard and tackle on the Grizzly defense from 1968-70.
